

I believe that it is important to reduce or avoid unnecessary expenses and to foster free-market economy that cell phone numbers be portable. Without the ability to transfer my cell phone number with my service, I will be unfairly influenced to remain with an inferior service to avoid the cost of reprinting business cards, or otherwise informing friends, clients and others of my change of cell phone number.
Thank you.